

Annie Mustafá Ramos is a Relationship Builder with over 20 years of professional experience in startup projects, international corporations, private sector, NGO's, academia, local and federal government in Puerto Rico and the United States. She has successfully established, developed, preserved, and strategized long term relationships into a network that includes a diverse group of business associations, professionals, universities, government agencies, NGO's, media, and online & offline communities that have contributed to fast business growth through her multifaceted professional career. In one word, she is a Connector.

As President of AnnieMus Consulting Group LLC, she provides consulting services and assist entities and individuals interested in doing or creating a business in Puerto Rico. She is also the Founder of Home is Puerto Rico, established to serve as a bridge between the local community and those who have chosen the Island to make it their home or start their business. HiPR is a community of individuals, professionals and businesspeople where they can connect and are willing to create, with other likeminded people, the place they call home a better place. At the Facebook group Act 60/20/22 Living and Doing Business in Puerto Rico people can learn about PR and business opportunities in the Island.

Ms. Mustafá was the Program Manager of the Resiliency and Business Innovation Program (RBI) at the Puerto Rico Science, Technology and Research Trust and served as Public Affairs Specialist for the US Small Business Administration under the Office of Disaster Assistance.

As Special Assistant to the Secretary of the Department of Economic Development and Commerce (DDEC), she facilitated the development and expansion of local and international industries and businesses in the Island and represented the Secretary in different boards.

During her role as Special Assistant to the Dean of the School of Business Administration at the University of Puerto Rico, Rio Piedras Campus, she was responsible for the Business School's outreach and program development office and the establishment of the first alumni organization for the School of Business (AFAE).

Her professional career also includes the opportunity to work in the startup of the Puerto Rico Exports Council; working at the Interamerican University, a private university; working for international companies including Elli Lilly, and Banco Santander; and for federal agencies including the Department of Transportation, and the Department of Energy in Washington, DC. She also served as an adjunct professor at the University of Puerto Rico, Humacao Campus where she was in charge of the international business internship course.

In June 2020, she received the Puerto Rico Chamber of Commerce President's Special Recognition Award, for serving as a bridge between the act 20/22/60 and the local business community while presiding the Act 20/22/60 Special Committee of the PRCC.

She is a former member of the PR District Export Council, an appointment made by the US Secretary of Commerce and a former President of the Organization of Women in International Trade (OWIT) PR Chapter.

Annie is currently the President of Alumni FAE (AFAE), member of the Advisory Board for the School of Business at the UPR-RP Campus and member of the GroYourBiz Peer Advisory Board.

She graduated Magna Cum Laude from the University of Puerto Rico, Rio Piedras Campus, where she obtained a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration, with a concentration in Marketing, and holds a MBA in Global Management.
