

Pablo L. Figueroa

President

Figueroa & Figueroa
Architecture &
Real Time Digital Data Planning

Highlights

Founder of Figueroa & Figueroa: An architectural firm based in San Juan, Puerto Rico that provides services in the areas of Architecture, Engineering, Real Time Digital Data Planning and International Relations.

Figueroa & Figueroa competitive advantage is based on the following:

1) a 360 global view that allows us to synthesize and integrate into our services substantive international issues including international trade, 2) knowledge and skills in international and business conflict and negotiation, 3) Planning and Business Intelligence Based in Real Time Digital Data 4) access to a network of top notch consultants in Real Time Digital Data Planning related to the MIT Senseable City Lab and international consultants in international politics, trade, economics finance, law and environmental issues. 5) knowledge and Skills in Security & Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design (CPTED) 6) fully linguistic and culturally bilingual firm we can provide quality culturally sensitive and client customized services in both a Spanish and English speaking environment.

Practicing Architect & Entrepreneur for the last 35 years.

Responsible for the successful planning and design and construction administration of 1.4 million square feet of construction valued over two hundred twenty million dollars including healthcare facilities.

Representative for Puerto Rico The Economist Intelligence Unit

Quick Facts

President of the Puerto Rico Chamber of Commerce for the 2012-2013 term & responsible for the institution 100th Centennial Celebration

Masters in Arts in International Relations from the Fletcher School Law and Diplomacy at Tufts University, Boston.

Bachelors degree in Architecture from Syracuse University, New York.

Post-Graduate Certificate in Gerontology from the Graduate School of Public Health, UPR, Medical Science Campus.

Trained in Negotiations and International Conflict Resolution at the Program of Negotiation and Conflict Resolution, Harvard School of Law, MIT & Tufts

Awards & Distinctions

The New York Times magazine "Fortune Small Business", published an article highlighting our participation in the Harvard University School of Law Program on Negotiation and Conflict Resolution Symposium.

One of his projects, "El Paseo Rio Bayamón", won the Gold and Bronze Medals in the international competition: "The Livable Communities Award, Liv-Com" of the United Nations, held in La Coruña, Spain, on November 2005.